

Elizabeth Ficocelli

Presents:

“Discovering, Living and Sharing Our Mission”

St. Mary Help of Christians Catholic Church

February 26-28, 2020

Ash Wednesday 2/26/20:

5:30 PM - Mass for Ash Wednesday in the Church
6:30 PM - Eucharistic Procession to open the Forty Hours
7:00 PM - 1st Mission Talk in Old St. Mary's

A Journey in Grace: From non-Catholic to Catholic Evangelist

Elizabeth shares her popular conversion story that has inspired thousands to reflect on how God has been working in their lives. In relaying her own discovery of mission, she invites audiences to explore more deeply how they may be being asked to further God's kingdom.

Thursday 2/27/20:

5:30 PM - Daily Mass in Old St. Mary's (Refreshments after Mass)
6:30 PM - 2nd Mission Talk in Old St. Mary's
Confession will be available this evening

From Burden to Joy: The Sacrament of Reconciliation in a Way You've Never Experienced It

Often, sins from our past or unforgiveness we may harbor toward others can hinder us from fully embracing our mission. In this night we look at unburdening ourselves in a powerful way through a new understanding of the gift of the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Friday 2/28/20:

3:00 PM - Sung Chaplet of Divine Mercy
5:30 PM - Daily Mass (Refreshments available after Mass)
6:30 PM - 3rd Mission Talk in Old St. Mary's
7:30 PM - Eucharistic Procession to end the Forty Hours/Mission

Discovering, Living and Sharing Our Mission

As baptized Christians, our mission emulates that of the Church. But it takes our cooperation, our yes. Tonight we look at ways to prepare for the special work God has designed just for us, practical ways to live that out, and how to be prepared for the likelihood of adversity.

Child care will be available in Smith Hall during the talk; registration required.
For more information or to register for child care, please contact Mary Ellen Jackson at mjackson@charlestandiocese.org or 803-642-2676

Speaker
Author
Radio Host

Elizabeth Ficocelli is an international speaker, an award winning author of fifteen books for adults and young people, a frequent guest on Catholic radio and television, and the long-time host of "Answering The Call" on St. Gabriel Catholic Radio AM 820.

Come, and bring a friend!